Taking Root

By Cheryl Bullock, Executive Director

We have had a great couple of months and it has been super busy! Our fundraising Sugar Rush Gala was so successful. Thank you to all that attended and we look forward to next year. We also appreciate the support of our community on the North Texas Giving Day.

Parker County agencies to come together to staff the child abuse cases that we are currently working. The MDT meeting consists of law enforcement, medical staff, legal staff, CPS, CACPC staff, the District Attorney's office, Juvenile Probation, the Fire Marshal, and any other involved investigating agencies. We individually and thoroughly discuss each case to determine what is complete. Any additional information on the case is also determined at this time.

These meetings provide an opportunity for effective communication between agencies so that every case has a comprehensive review. It is a great example of how the CACPC is giving every child in Parker County a voice.

Finally, a huge thank you to Drakes Yoke in Willow Park for their continuous support of the CACPC. They have really gone above and beyond for the children of Parker County and we just cannot thank them enough for the generosity.

See you at the Sweet Charity!
